Wilson to Make No Change, However, in Guard Movements to Border.

WASHINGTON, July 4 .- The long expected note from the Carranza Government reached Washington to-day.

In striking contrast to the belligerent tone of previous communications assembled on the village green.

It concedes, members of the embassy staff state, the contention of the United States that conditions along the border by reason of the bandit raids have been intolerable, and extends the headlines seem to indicate." The strong promises by the Mexican Government to restore order and protect American territory from further raids.

No Withdrawal Demand.

Moreover, it is said, the note does not specifically renew the demands for a withdrawal of the American forces, but, contending that the presence of the troops on Mexican soil contributes. It was accepted as evidence of the sturdy, unwavering patriotism of Mr. Hughes and wavering patriotism of Mr. Hughes and when he had concluded a call for "three cheers for our next President" met a hughes and suppose on Mexican soil contributes.
